Wolf Pack Drop

Climb Keystone Canyon, cross on the Keystone-UNR Connector, rip the UNR DH Trail, finish down Reno Vista and roll back west on the Rancho Connector Trail.

Heads up: Recent rain (0.31 in in 48 hrs). If your tires leave ruts, turn around and save it for another day.

⚠ Not yet ridden by us. This line was routed from OpenStreetMap trail data and hasn't been ridden end to end yet. Trail access and direction can change: check posted signs and the land manager before you ride.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Closed right now: the Hawk Fire closure (Humboldt-Toiyabe National Forest order 04-17-26-01-08, extended Oct 23, 2026) shuts the national forest trails on this ride through Jan 30, 2027, unless the Forest lifts it sooner. Before you go, check the Humboldt-Toiyabe National Forest alerts page or call the Carson Ranger District at (775) 882-2766: the exact closed trails are on the order's map, so confirm yours is open. Once it reopens, expect burn damage, loose soil and missing signs.
- UNR DH is a descent only: berms, jumps and whoops up top, and steeper, rockier black-diamond features lower down. Inspect features first and walk anything beyond you. Never ride it uphill.
- Reno Vista is also ridden downhill only here. The finish on the Rancho Connector Trail is a short climb back to the trailhead.
- At the bottom of UNR DH the route touches the Upper N Trail for a few yards; stay on the cue sheet, as the N Trails are expert-only.

RIDE SMART

- Water: plan on about 1 L for this ride. There's none on the trail.
- Signal is spotty. Tell someone your route and your time back.
- Emergency: call 911 and say "Wolf Pack Drop ride, parked at East Keystone Canyon Trailhead, Reno, Nevada", plus the coordinates from Locate me.
- Wildlife: give horses, burros and anything with horns room, and never feed them.
- Stay on trail. Desert crust and mountain soil take decades to heal.
